

Announcement: Henry Schein - Certified an Australian Great Place To Work®

Henry Schein Australia, a solutions company for healthcare professionals, has earned the Great Place to Work® certification for the second year running. At Henry Schein, our culture and our people are at the core of our business which makes this certification a significant achievement and one in which the whole Henry Schein Australia team takes great pride in.

Great Place to Work is a global authority on workplace culture and specialises in employee engagement, organisational alignment and its effect on high performance workplace culture. Great Place to Work uses a rigorous and objective methodology to analyse employee perception around credibility, fairness, respect, camaraderie and pride, as well as HR practices.

The results of the 2021 Australian Great Place To Work® Survey show that 84% of all employees rated Henry Schein as a great place to work, and 90% taking Pride in what the business accomplishes.

The most notable points in the survey highlight:

- Management's responsibility towards its people, acting with honesty, integrity, and their competency in running the business.
- Equality no matter gender, sexuality, ethnicity, or position. Continuing to rate over 90% in all these areas.
- A friendly place to work with a family feeling, and a good working environment.
- 89% of employees saying they feel good about Henry Schein's contribution to the community.

"We are proud of our culture at Henry Schein Australia and we are delighted to receive this external certification for the second year in a row." said Mike Covey, VP and Managing Director for Henry Schein ANZ. "The last 12 months have posed many challenges but as a business we have been committed to bringing our teams and our people closer together even whilst working remotely".

"Our company vision is to be the Trusted Business Partner to Dental professionals, and we achieve this through our dedicated Team Schein Members (TSMs)."

Ariane Aeschimann-Forbes, HR Director Henry Schein ANZ, added: "We are proud to see our employees experience continuing to improve year on year with 84% of Henry Schein Australia's employees saying Henry Schein is a great place to work."

"In 2020 we introduced our Culture Champions, a group of TSMs representing all areas of the business and focused on enhancing employee experience and continuing to develop our culture. In addition, the survey reports a positive experience of management being honest and ethical, competent at running the business and embodying the best characteristics of our company. We are grateful to our managers and Culture Champions who help us create a great workplace."

Henry Schein will continue to build on its commitment to our Team Schein Members and our customers through creating a great working environment and caring for our employees.
